(Related to Initial Proposal Regarding Hours for Transitional Kindergarten and Kindergarten)

ARTICLE XIX - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

C. Duty Aides

1. The District agrees to provide morning and afternoon bus/yard duty aides for grades K-6. These aides will supervise the children on the school grounds before and after the instructional day.
2. The District will provide recess duty aides for grades TK1-6. These aides will supervise the children during recess.
3. The District will provide Transitional Kindergarten and Kindergarten classes a minimum of one hour of instructional aide time prior to lunch each day, ~~er day~~.
4. Teachers may be asked to supervise buses or recess on an occasional basis in the absence of an aide or in an emergency situation.
5. On rainy days, teachers are entitled to a 30-minute duty-free lunch and will be expected to report back to their classrooms to supervise their class.
7. Each TK-K teacher will be reimbursed up to $500.00 for classroom supplies purchased between July 1, 2015 and May 31, 2016. All requests for reimbursements must be completed on appropriate District forms and include itemized receipts. All documentation must be submitted by June 6, 2016.
8. For the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 years each TK-K classroom will receive $500.00 above any site supply budget allocations.
9. Transitional Kindergarten and Kindergarten teachers will receive no less than nine (9) hours of release time per year for the purpose of site collaboration and program development as determined by the site TK and Kindergarten teachers. This time can be used at the discretion of Transitional Kindergarten and Kindergarten teachers so long as it does not conflict with District and site sponsored trainings. This provision shall expire at the end of the 2017-2018 school year.
