    - a. The student's parent/guardian shall provide written consent for the absence.
    - b. The student shall attend at least the minimum school day.
    - c. The student shall be excused from school for this purpose on no more than four days per school month.
- (cf. 6141.2 - Recognition of Religious Beliefs and Customs)

Method of Verification

When a student who has been absent returns to school, he/she shall present a satisfactory explanation verifying the reason for the absence. Absences shall be verified by the student's parent/guardian, other person having control of the minor, or the student if age 18 or older. (Education Code 46012; 5 CCR 306)

The following methods may be used to verify student absences:

1. Written note, fax, email, or voice mail from parent/guardian or parent representative.
2. Conversation, in person or by telephone, between the verifying employee and the student's parent/guardian or parent representative. The employee shall subsequently record the following:
  - a. Name of student
  - b. Name of parent/guardian or parent representative
  - c. Name of verifying employee
  - d. Date(s) of absence
  - e. Reason for absence
3. Visit to the student's home by the verifying employee, or any other reasonable method which establishes the fact that the student was absent for the reasons stated. The employee shall document the verification and include the information specified in item #2 above.
4. Physician's verification.
  - a. When excusing students for confidential medical services or verifying such appointments, district staff shall not ask the purpose of such appointments but may request a note from the medical office to confirm the time of the appointment.
  - b. If a student shows a pattern of chronic absenteeism due to illness, district staff may require physician verification of any further student absences.
5. 10 percent school days enrolled.
  - a. To be implemented at a date designated by the Superintendent or designee but not prior to the district's 20th day of instruction.
  - b. When a student has accrued absences due to illness verified by the methods listed, equal to or surpassing 10 percent of the schools days during which the student was enrolled, from the date of enrollment to the current date, subsequent absences must be verified by a physician, health professional, school nurse, or other school personnel.

c. Absences must be cleared daily, unless other arrangements are made with the school principal or designee. Failure to provide verification from a physician, health professional, school nurse or other school personnel, will result in said additional absences being recorded as unexcused.

d. When a student has absences equal to or surpassing the 10 percent limit as described above, for excusable reasons other than illness, the student and parent may be referred to a student study team or a School Attendance Review Board for a case review.

e. Placing a student under the requirement of the 10 percent policy or removing a student from said requirements and procedures prior to the end of the current academic year, shall be left to the discretion of the school site principal.

Parental Notifications

At the beginning of each school year, the Superintendent or designee shall:

1. Notify parents/guardians of the right to excuse a student from school in order to participate in religious exercises or to receive moral and religious instruction at their places of worship, or at other suitable places away from school property designated by a religious group, church, or denomination (Education Code 46014, 48980)
2. Notify students in grades 7-12 and the parents/guardians of all students that school authorities may excuse any student from school to obtain confidential medical services without the consent of the student's parent/guardian (Education Code 46010.1)
3. Notify parents/guardians that a student shall not have his/her grade reduced or lose academic credit for any excused absence if missed assignments and tests that can reasonably be provided are satisfactorily completed within a reasonable period of time, and include the full text of Education Code 48205 in the notice (Education Code 48980)

(cf. 5121 - Grades/Evaluation of Student Achievement)

(cf. 5145.6 - Parental Notifications)

(cf. 6154 - Homework/Makeup Work)
