The Paradise Unified School District is dedicated to maximizing student success. Ongoing communication among all stakeholders is the key to making sure that our students are supported to the best of our ability. The 2019-2020 scheduled LCAP Public Forums for school-community stakeholders are as follows (this schedule can change as needed, so check back as often as possible to see any possible changes and find one that works well for your family):

2020 Public Forums
Date	Time	Location
Tuesday, March 10, 2020	6:00 p.m.	Paradise High School, Library
Monday, March 16, 2020	5:30 p.m.	Pine Ridge School, Library

We want to hear from all community partners and stakeholders. In addition, we are also meeting/engaging with parent advisory groups, student advisory council(s), outside community partners/groups, faculty associations and employee groups. The Paradise Unified School District is dedicated to maximizing student success. Ongoing communication among all stakeholders is the key to making sure that our students are supported to the best of our ability.

LCAP DRAFT DEVELOPMENT

April/May 2020

PUSD will work with Superintendent LCAP Advisory Councils on proposed draft versions of the 2020-2021 LCAP.

May 2020

PUSD will post draft of the 2020-2021 LCAP for public review.

PUSD staff will continue to work with stakeholders, county partners, and staff to review and assess this draft version in the coming days and weeks. If there are formatting issues or changes made to the draft, we will post those drafts here.

In addition, PUSD will make necessary changes to the proposed LCAP draft after the May budget revise that the Office of the Governor releases.
